MODA CALIDA BRIDAL COLLECTION 2016

Moda Calida Bridal Collection arrived in Gran Canaria at the beginning of March.

Packed full of event trends, style and luxury, Moda Calida helps towards boosting the Gran Canaria wedding sector, offering residents a new way of browsing the latest bridal and events developments.

Along with the catwalk Spring Fashion & Friends (Fashion and Friends), the Bridal Collection, hosted in the Nestor Museum in Las Palmas, is one of the three major events in Gran Canaria's Moda Calida calendar.

Set in an exclusive atmosphere with a unique edge, Gran Canaria's finest bridal designers took the stage to present their 2016 designs.

Arcadia Dominguez & Elena Rubio kicked off the event with some exquisite designs, followed by Nieves Barroso, Bello Company, Ogadenia Diaz, Oswaldo Machín, Pedro Palmas, Aurelia Gil & Jose Garcias y Roes.

The event also celebrated the latest communion dress designs of Oswaldo Machin, It Child, Mi Menina, Nanos, Elena Rubio and Neck & Neck.

The exhibition area located in the adjoining Parque Doramas Rincon Oriental, gives future brides and grooms the opportunity to sample the fantastic products and services that the Gran Canaria bridal industry have to offer in a magical fairytale setting.

From the latest floral trends to the innovative culinary creations, Gran Canaria's manufacturers and suppliers provide its visitors with a array of wedding and event possibilities.

Moda Calida events are must visit occasions in the Gran Canaria calendar and not to be missed if you want to stay informed about the latest fashion trends, and this event did not disappoint, with the island becoming better and better known as a perfect weddings destination.
