

Gran Canaria came alive again with wedding fever at Expoboda 2013 November Wedding Fayre in Las Palmas.

Infecar was host to over 30 independent bridal suppliers across the island, which specializes in providing services and products to the ever increasing wedding industry in Gran Canaria.

Expo Boda is the ideal inspiration for brides and grooms looking for local, artisan businesses who know that it's the teeny, tiny details that make wedding days so special!

Numerous catwalk shows took place throughout the day featuring luxury, designer wedding dresses, pop-up beauty parlors, boutique bakers, elegant event styling, decadent décor hire, beautiful blooms, LIVE entertainment acts, and not forgetting representation from well known wedding venues across the island.

Every year we're seeing new and innovative products and services come onto the market.

Our prospective bride and grooms have an array of possibilities for their wedding ceremonies and celebrations on our beautiful island. Coupled with the all year round sunny climate, Gran Canaria is also fast becoming a leader in destination weddings.
